Darling Dorothy Sunday

I never was more lonely
for you than after you left last night - I began to worry that perhaps the man would steal
you, you looked so
sweet and nervous
when you went off.
I saw you were lonely
and I knew if I did not drive you off you would not go - I am

~~Dear~~ ^{most} ~~dear~~ ^{dear} ~~you~~ ^{you}
I will ^{most} ~~dear~~ ^{dear} ~~you~~ ^{you} have having a fine time now you are there. We have had a nice day - moulting way
to keep in thousands but out of our cherry tree
The neighbors came to call and I have a log cap
of the little girl on the top of the tree. Halhaway came too and Mr and Mrs McDougall were here for tea. My foot is fine and I am all right -
Have a good time and hope that Auntie Vic and Grandma would love to have you here.

Darling Dorothy

I am fine how are
you. I have had a Grand day put my up
our house.

Getting after the mother
fixing my flowers
They were water topped
we will not need to
water them until Xmas.

Am sending you
by Mrs mail a letter from Bobby
and one from his mother.

Will also post the
two letters you left
ready.

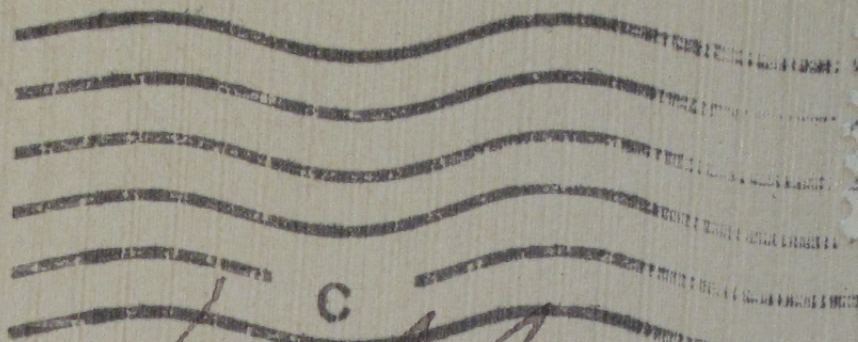

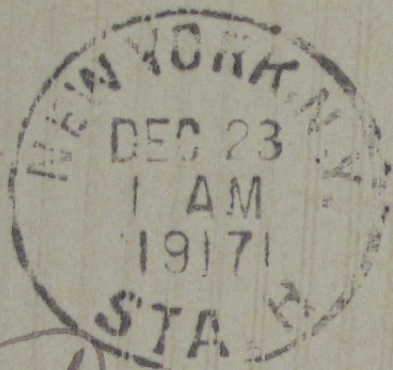

Am dressed now
to go to George Smith
for matches.

and to call at Miss Burdens and get some idea about that Corp.
beef sneezes.
Shame that I cannot
remember any thing
about it!

I hope you are having a fine sail and
will not be cold on the water. Have the best of your life

and tell Mrs Porter.
we are ever so much
obliged for the loan
of your.

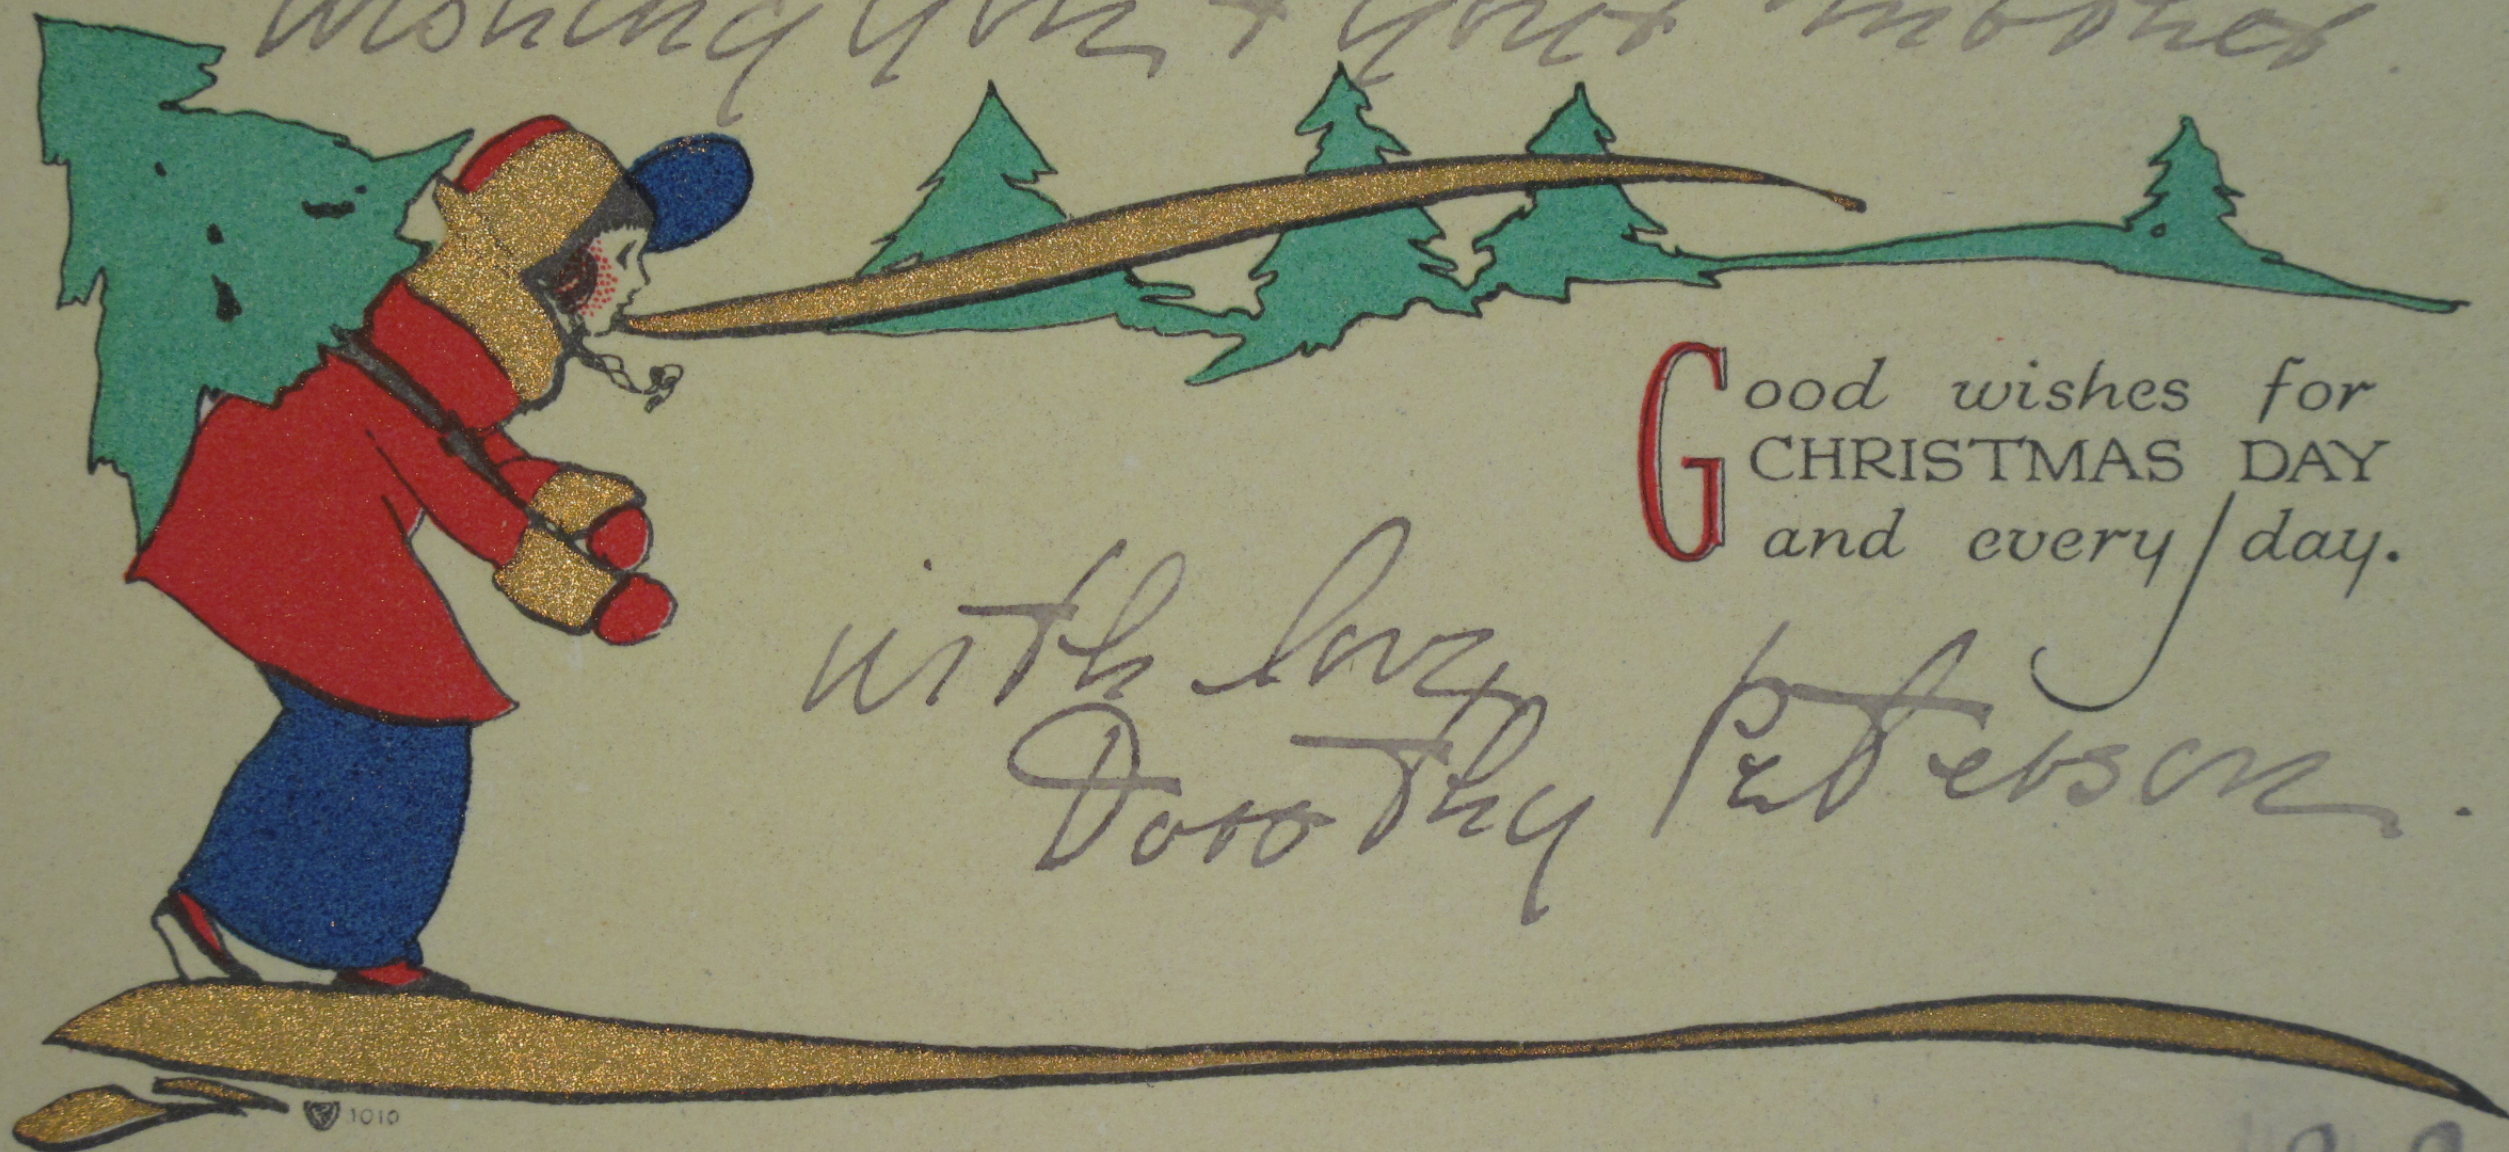

It is good to go on
weeking but it is also good to get home again. I have just read a fine
letter in the Sun from Ed Miller. I thought he was killed. Will send it to you after 1.7

Miss Dorothy Raff.

Wishing you + your mother

Good wishes for
CHRISTMAS DAY
and every day.

With love
Dorothy Peterson.
